

Hosted by Denver's Treble Choir, Safonia, The Colorado Treble Festival will bring together over 100 talented singers of all ages from across the region and country. The festival will provide a platform for choral singers to showcase their skills and learn from experienced directors. With a focus on promoting life-long singing, the Colorado Treble Festival is a must-attend event for anyone passionate about choral music. Sponsorships help Safonia cover the cost of the event.
